

As part of its due process procedures, the EFRAG Administrative Board and its Due Process Committee (DPC) make sure to address issues or questions raised by its stakeholders on EFRAG's due process. EFRAG makes all due process correspondence available on its website. This includes the original submission as well as replies from the EFRAG Administrative Board or its DPC and the EFRAG Secretariat input into the reply.

From April 2022

[illegible]